

Ken Hensley is a Catholic teacher and apologist. As an evangelical Protestant he received his masters degree from Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, CA before being ordained into the Baptist ministry, where he served for eleven years. In 1993, Ken learned that a friend from his seminary days, Scott Hahn, had converted to the Catholic faith. He contacted Scott, initially to ask, "What have you done!?" Thus began more than three years of prayer, struggle and an intense rethinking of his entire worldview as a Christian. In 1996, Ken resigned his pastorate and at Easter Vigil 1997 was received into the Catholic Church with his wife Tina.

Ken and Tina have been married for 34 years. They have two children and five grandchildren. They live in Fillmore, California.

"I want to recommend my good friend, Ken Hensley, who is a very effective speaker on a wide variety of subjects, ranging from Scripture and Apologetics to Church History and the New Atheism... Ken is an expert pastor, with a pastor's heart, who can make the Bible come alive."

— Scott Hahn, Professor of Theology, Franciscan University of Steubenville

"Having worked in the field of Catholic apologetics for nearly 30 years, I've been privileged to know and collaborate with many talented, inspirational, and effective teachers of the Faith. It's no exaggeration to say that my friend Ken Hensley is among the very best of the best of the Catholic apologists serving Christ and His Church today."

— Patrick Madrid, host of the "Patrick Madrid Show" on Immaculate Heart Radio on Mon-Fri from 6-9am PST, and author of *Why Be Catholic?
