Where & When?

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16

St. Mary Parish

140 South St.

Wrentham, MA

7 – 8:30 pm

Celebrate the Fall with a special concert and witness by Boston's own Bernie Choiniere.

Bernie has been a presence in the Catholic Contemporary music scene for over 14 years. His credits include opening for Jars of Clay in Foxboro Stadium and performing at Fenway Park at Jubilee 2000 for 15,000 young people where his song "I'll Be Your Child" was chosen as the event's theme song. Bernie has also performed at several World Youth Day events, the National Catholic Youth Convention and on EWTN's "Back Stage". His latest release is entitled "With You" and includes the song "Emmanuel" which won the 2003 Unity Award Best Modern Rock/Alternative Song of the Year.

Bernie lives in Hudson, NH with his wife and four daughters and is currently the music director at St. Monica's Parish in Methuen, MA.

There is no charge, but your free-will offering would be greatly appreciated!
